

HCJ Edu Introduction

HCJ Education Investment & Development Joint Stock Company (HCJ Edu) is a subsidiary of HCJ Joint Stock Company. HCJ Edu invests in multiple sectors, with key focus areas including resort combined with learning farm, international K-12 school system, and STEAM folk toy factory.

HCJ Edu takes great pride in transforming 50 hectares of land in Hoa Binh into one of Vietnam's leading large-scale educational farm and resort known as Sỏi Resort in Farm. Sỏi Resort in Farm is located along the Ho Chi Minh road in Tan Thang village, Phu Thanh commune, Lac Thuy district, Hoa Binh province. This location offers exceptional accessibility, being less than 60 km from Hanoi with a travel time of just about 1.5 hours by car. The site features physical activity zones, folk games, plant nursery and tissue culture facilities, and a vast clean farming area with specialty crops such as red-fleshed dragon fruits, yellow-fleshed oranges, and Diễn grapefruits. These experiences not only provide young learners with deeper knowledge of folk culture but also teach them about sustainable clean farming practices, contributing to the long-term development of Vietnamese families and society.
